City's new Banking Partner Standard Bank

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What does this mean?

The City's bank account number has changed. The City of Johannesburg has awarded the new banking tender to Standard Bank South Africa.

What are the benefits of the change?

In line with the City's objectives, Standard Bank has committed to partnering with the City in:

- Driving efficiency and sustainability
- Optimising revenue collection
- Optimally managing cash flows both for operational and capital budgets
- Effectively managing transformation; and
- Ensuring service delivery.

What are the new banking details?

For security reasons banking details will not be supplied by the City of Johannesburg. There are however, various processes for payment via a Standard Bank branch, ATM payments, cell phone banking, internet banking, telephone banking etc. which is outlined further in this document.

What is the process to make a payment at a Standard Bank branch?

A unique beneficiary number has been allocated to The City of Johannesburg for Standard Bank branch deposits.

Kindly use the AA45 as the beneficiary account number (see deposit slip).

The statement reference will be your “9 digit municipal account number” for the bill being paid.

The banking systems are configured to do a modulus validation of the customer reference to assist with ensuring that we are able to allocate your payment to your account with the City of Johannesburg.

No banking details will be supplied; this is to ensure that no private beneficiary details are linked for City of Johannesburg.

How to complete the Standard Bank Deposit slip?
